

Business Assurance Diagnostic

Your need for this service

Rigorous business assurance has rapidly become a must for the housing sector. The HCA and funders alike expect compelling evidence of good business practice and robust financial management from any housing association, but especially that business should be built on robust and prudent assumptions based on past performance, market conditions and deliverability and keeping this focus under review and updated in light of changing circumstances. The Business Assurance Diagnostic from Investors in Excellence is an indispensable tool for precisely this purpose.
